The Pan Arab Journal of Rhinology (PAJR), is the official journal of the Pan Arab Rhinology Society (PARS). It is well-distributed and appreciated all over the world. The journal is now hosted by Digital Comments - Elsevier, and is progressing quickly on the right track for better scores of visibility, website trafficking, and citations. Now the PAJR website offers professional easy well-ordered submission, reviewing, and on-time publication facilities. More submissions have been introduced to the journal with subsequent many rejections. With the participation of international reviewers and many more international submissions, the PAJR is becoming well known and followed all over the world.

The PAJR is now an online, open-access, double-blind, peer-reviewed, and widely distributed journal. It accepts only high-quality articles in all fields of Rhinology including inflammation, infection, allergy, congenital diseases, trauma, and tumors of the nose and paranasal sinuses. All related other specialties are also well appreciated including radiology, pathology, oncology, pediatrics, internal medicine and pulmonology etc. The PAJR covers all fields of rhinology including open and endoscopic surgery, snoring and OSA, rhinoplasty, maxillofacial, allergy, smell, and pharmacotherapy.

Published articles are freely available online.

Next year, on February 29–March 2, 2024, the Egyptian Rhinology Society will celebrate its 30th anniversary of the RhinoEgypt conference. Meanwhile, the PARS will celebrate the 15th PARS conference. These are the fruits of the continuous and sincere co-work among all Otorhinolaryngology colleagues in general and rhinologists in particular in Egypt and all Arab countries supported by all colleagues from all over the world. It is worth mentioning that the support of the International Rhinology Society (IRS) and the International Society of Infection and Allergy of the Nose (ISIAN) teams was a truly big push to this big annual event.

Do not miss the chance to be part of the success of the PAJR.
